This return walk starts from a nice rest area on Georges Road and follows the road along the ridge, passing several great lookout points across the valley, to the quiet little 125r lookout, which provides a nice open clearing that just screams lunch time. Please note that Watagan and Georges Roads are dry weather roads only, if you are unsure, check with the park office before heading out. This walk can be made shorter by driving further along Georges Rd.

0 | GNW Rest Area

This is a small rest area on the side of Georges Road, providing room to rest up and for a small campfire. There are also some nice views through the trees but be careful as this rest area is near a steep drop.

0 | Northern rest area

(1.3 km 31 mins) From the clearing, this walk follows Georges Road, initially keeping the views on your right. The walk leads downhill for a few hundred metres, then notably becomes moderately steep downhill for another 400m before flattening to cross a wide saddle. On the other side of the saddle, this walk leads uphill for about 400m, then the track flattens out and bends right to come to a three-way intersection, with the signposted '125r Lookout' trail (on the left).

1.32 | Top of the 125r Lookout trail

(860 m 17 mins) Turn left: From the intersection, this walk follows the '125r Lookout' sign south gently downhill along the grassy trail. The walk continues through forest for about 900m, until coming to the end of the road and an unfenced lookout with wide valley views.

2.18 | 125r Lookout

The 125r Lookout, in the Watagan National Park, is located on a track off Georges Road. This unfenced clearing is on a cliff edge and has broad views o over the surrounding valleys. This small clearing has been used as a campsite.
